CHIC PARIS

5 days of chic Paris

TT•CP

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

- Paris: has the reputation of being the most beautiful and romantic of all cities, with its recognizable architectural icons, along with exquisite cuisine, chic boutiques and priceless artistic treasures. The Grand Louvre, the museum is housed in the Louvre Palace, originally built as a fortress in the late 12th century, nowadays the museum displays more than 380,000 objects and displays 35,000 works of art in eight curatorial departments with more than 60,600 square meters dedicated to the permanent collection. The Louvre exhibits sculptures, objects of art, paintings, drawings, and archaeological findings. Arc de Triomphe exudes grandeur and offers a central view of the city. Notre Dame Cathedral is an impressive Gothic cathedral that was the inspiration for Victor Hugo's novel The Hunchback of Notre Dame. Climb to the top! Sainte Chapelle with exquisite stained glass chapel with much more beautiful interior than the gloomy Notre Dame Cathedral.
- Château de Versailles is a must be seen. France's most exquisite chateau, on the outskirts of the city, once the home to Louis XVI and Marie Antoinette.
- The Palace of Fontainebleau, has witnessed eight unbroken centuries of sovereign rule. Kings and queens, and emperors and empresses, took great pains to embellish the palace, built around the original mediaeval dungeon. The palace and its park have been listed as UNESCO world heritage sites since 1981.
- Mont St. Michel: a member of UNESCO list of World Heritage Sites, with its unique position of being an island only 600 meters from land made it readily accessible on low tide to the many pilgrims to its abbey. Offering a great selection of famous paintings and sculptures.

Day 03 : Paris – Mont Saint Michel – Paris

After breakfast departure to Normandy to one of France's most recognizable landmarks, Mont Saint-Michel and its bay which are part of the UNESCO list of World Heritage Sites to enjoy the spectacular sight. After going through the Boulevard Gate and then the King's Gate fortified with its portcullis, you will find the « Grande Rue » or main street with its museums, shops and houses dating from the 15th and 16th centuries. The parish church consecrated to St-Pierre, the patron saint of fishermen, is a small edifice from the 15th and 16th centuries. Finally the path will take you to the « Grande Degre » or Grande Staircase whose majesty is a prelude to the « Marvel ». After admiring the Abbey church, you can enjoy the beautiful and matchless view over the bay when going down the ramparts path.

Meals: B

Day 04 : Paris – Versailles – Fontainebleau – Paris

Morning departure to Versailles for a visit of Palace and its gardens. The Palace of Versailles was the principal residence of the French kings from the time of Louis XIV to Louis XVI. Embellished by several generations of architects, sculptors, decorators and landscape architects, it provided Europe with a model of the ideal royal residence for over a century. In the afternoon we will move to Palace and Park of Fontainebleau to explore what kings of France from the 12th century were using, the medieval royal hunting lodge of Fontainebleau, standing at the heart of a vast forest in the Ile-de-France, which was transformed, enlarged and embellished in the 16th century by François I, who wanted to make a 'New Rome' of it. Surrounded by an immense park, the Italianate palace combines Renaissance and French artistic traditions.

LUXURIOUS SUNSHINE OF FRANCE AND MONACO

5 days of Marseille, Arles, Aix en Provence,
Nice and Monaco sunshine

TT•LSFM

ITINERARY

Day 01: Marseille

Arrive at Marseille airport and transfer to the hotel.

Day 02: Marseille – Arles – Aix en Provence – Marseille

Morning sightseeing tour of Marseille will feature the Notre Dame de la Garde. Continue to the Arles to enjoy the stroll through what possibly is one of the most romantic city in Provence, the magnificent sunsets on the edge of the Rhône or on the banks of Vaccarès, the charm of the narrow streets of the old town, walks between marshes and wetlands have long been attracting visitors, Vincent Van Gogh has found inspiration in the beautiful area. The city has kept alive the unique heritage, with a theater, an amphitheater, Roman baths, a stadium, and many other Roman remains.

The day will continue with the stroll through the calming but vivid Course Mirabeau in Aix en Provence. Meals: B

Day 03: Marseille – Nice – Eze – Monaco

Morning stop at the Marseille old port to admire the St. Victor's Abbey, on the south side of the Old Port, the Phare de Sainte Marie, a lighthouse, the Hôtel de Ville (town hall) and the historic ferry, plying between opposite sides of the Old Port. The day will then continue at Promenade des Anglais, that gives Nice its cosmopolitan and attractive identity between the sea and the palm-trees.

Drive will then continue to a tiny village of Eze, one of the jewels of the south of France. Perched on a rocky hill above the sea, it could not get any prettier. With narrow cobblestone, pedestrian-only streets, wonderful views of the surrounding hills and the azure water below, the stroll through will provide you with an inside of how it was centuries ago. Journeying along the scenic Moyenne Corniche, with its spectacular vistas of the Côte d'Azur enter the tiny Principality of Monaco where the day will end. Meals: B

Day 04: Monaco

A day to relax, a day to savour Monaco to the fullest. With arguably one of the most beautiful harbors in the world, the dramatic cliffs and the multi-million dollar mega-yachts. The incredible Monaco's Royal Palace with daily changing of the guard Palace, Napoleon's Museum, Oceanographic Museum, and no shortage of high-end shopping or at least window-shopping. And the obvious perhaps try your luck inside the famous casino. Meals: B

Day 05: Monaco – Nice airport

The short France and Monaco experience will slowly come to an end. The transfer will take you to Nice airport for flight home. Meals: B

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

- Arles: The Arles Amphitheatre is a Roman amphitheatre, this two-tiered Roman amphitheatre is probably the most prominent tourist attraction in the city of Arles, which thrived in Roman times. The pronounced towers jutting out from the top are medieval add-ons.
- Remoulins: The Pont du Gard is an ancient Roman aqueduct bridge that crosses the Gardon River, from which it takes its name. It is located in Vers-Pont-du-Gard near Remoulins, in the Gard département of southern France. The bridge is part of the Nîmes aqueduct, a 50 km-long (31 mi) structure built by the Romans to carry water from a spring at Uzès to the Roman colony of Nemausus (Nîmes)
- Marseille: with its imposing Notre-Dame de la Garde the Catholic basilica, the magnificent Old port with St. Victor's Abbey, the lighthouse and the historic ferry will invigorate your day
- Eze: narrow cobblestone, pedestrian-only streets, wonderful views of the surrounding hills and the azure water below
- Moyenne Corniche the spectacular drive and its stunning views of the beautiful Côte d'Azur
- Monaco: Prince's Palace of Monaco with beautiful frescos and be-columned courtyard to apartments effusive with flamboyant décor. Leaving the Palace, enjoy the all-round views from the square, the glorious rock-side St Martin gardens and Monaco's cathedral. The tombs of Prince Rainier and Princess Grace are to the left of the choir. They make a striking, sober contrast with the neo-Byzantine over-ornamentation of the rest of the church.

COMPLETE FRENCH EXPERIENCE

TT•CFE

8 days from Nice to Avignon, Arles, Lyon, Loire Valley and Paris

TOUR HIGHLIGHTS:

- Nice: the magnificent Promenade des Anglais, the Musée Marc Chagall - The national Marc Chagall museum, created by the artist's will
- Avignon: city of the Popes - Altera Roma — holds in its heart a multicultural history, a foreshadowing of its future!
- Arles: The Arles Amphitheatre is a Roman amphitheatre; the most prominent tourist attraction in the city of Arles
- Pont du Gard is a three-level stone aqueduct crossing the Gardon river valley, built over 2000 years ago, in 19 BC, by Marcus Vipsanius Agrippa, the son-in-law of Augustus.
- Lyon: with its outstanding museums, a dynamic cultural life, busy clubbing and drinking scenes, a thriving university and fantastic shopping lend the city a distinctly sophisticated air, while adventurous gourmets can indulge in their wildest gastronomic fantasies within this UNESCO Heritage Site.

- Loire Valley: often called the "Garden of France", the Loire Valley is an enchanted land of vineyards, floral gardens and rolling green hills dotted with more than a thousand Châteaux.
- Château of Chambord is one of the loveliest Renaissance buildings in the Valley of the Loire. Chambord, château, park, and village in the department of Loire-et-Cher in central France.
- Château de Chenonceau has long been considered the "most romantic" of all the Loire châteaux, thanks, in part to its showpiece—a breathtaking galerie de bal that spans the River Cher like a bridge. Set in the village of Chenonceaux (spelled with an x) on the River Cher.
- Tours has a zinging life of its own in addition to being one of the hubs of castle country. It's a smart, vivacious kind of place, with an impressive medieval centre, parks and a busy university.
- Mont St. Michel: a member of UNESCO list of World Heritage Sites, with its unique position of being an island only 600 meters from land made it readily accessible on low tide to the many pilgrims to its abbey. Offering a great selection of famous paintings and sculptures.

- Paris: has the reputation of being the most beautiful and romantic of all cities. ITINERARY

Day 01: Nice

Arrive to Nice airport and transfer to the hotel.

Day 02 : Nice - Avignon

Morning visit of Promenade des Anglais, that gives Nice its cosmopolitan and attractive identity between the sea and the palm-trees. For all time, artists have been fascinated by the city's radiance, the beauty of its landscapes and its relaxed atmosphere, all factors of creativity. Even today art is also in the street of Nice: the city has been a real open-air contemporary museum with its 13 works created by world-renowned artists which give the urban landscape its distinctive style. To make the most of your stay in Nice we will also see the 17 paintings making up the Biblical Message by Marc Chagall. Continue to Avignon for the overnight. Meals: B

Day 03 : Avignon - Arles - Avignon

Morning visit of Capital of the Christendom in the Middle Ages - Avignon kept of its history, a heritage of exception, a big part, of which is registered on the UNESCO world heritage list: the Popes' Palace and the Bridge of Avignon, but also the square of the palace with the baroque facade of the hotel of currencies, museum of the Petit Palais and the cathedral of Doms, as well as the ramparts since the garden of Doms up to the Bridge. Continue to what once was a metropolis of Roman Gaul, then Arles became a symbol of ardent Christianity as can be seen through the arena, the Alyscamps burial grounds, the amphitheater and the Roman baths of Constantin. Meals: B

Day 04 : Avignon - Lyon

Morning departure to Pont du Gard (Roman Aqueduct), built shortly before the Christian era to allow the aqueduct of Nîmes (which is almost 50 km long) to cross the Gard river. The Roman architects and hydraulic engineers who designed this bridge, which stands almost 50 m high and is on three levels – the longest measuring 275 m – created a technical as well as an artistic masterpiece. Continue to Alpes region and its central city - Lyon with its charming and beautiful streets, the old part of town overlooking from the hill Fourvière, boasting a landscape of UNESCO World Heritage Site.

Day 05 : Lyon – Loire Valley – Tours

Morning departure to Loire Valley for a visit of very distinctive French Renaissance architecture of Château de Chambord which blends traditional French medieval forms with classical Renaissance structures. The building, which was never completed, was constructed by King Francis I of France. Continue to Château de Chenonceau Known as "Château de Femmes" or "the castle of six ladies" for the succession of powerful French noblewomen of Chenonceau, who each made an impact on the castle, forming it into the lovely château we see today. This enchanting castle may be smaller in comparison to others, but what it lacks in size it makes up in charm. "This truly is a magnificent place, deeply rich with history, and is certainly one of... the most romantic Châteaux in Loire Valley." The tour will continue in Tours also called «Le Jardin de la France». There are several parks located within the city. The buildings of Tours are white with blue slate (called Ardoise) roofs. Tours is famous for its original medieval district, called le Vieux Tours. Unique to the Old City are its preserved half-timbered buildings and la Place Plumereau, a square with busy pubs and restaurants, its many bridges crossing the river Loire. One of them. Near the cathedral, in the garden of the ancient Palais des Archevêques (now Musée des Beaux-Arts), is a huge cedar tree planted by Napoleon.

Day 06 : Tours – Mont Saint Michel – Paris

After breakfast departure to one of France's most recognizable landmarks, Mont Saint-Michel and its bay which are part of the UNESCO list of World Heritage Sites to enjoy the spectacular sight. After going through the Boulevard Gate and then the King's Gate fortified with its portcullis, you will find the « Grande Rue » or main street with its museums, shops and houses dating from the 15th and 16th centuries. Departing to Brugges, the romantic canal woven city, with charming atmosphere, the sights of interesting architecture no short of the fairy tale story. Continue to Ghent where much of the city's medieval architecture remains intact and is remarkably well preserved and restored. Its centre is the largest carfree area in Belgium. Interesting highlights are the Saint Bavo Cathedral with the Ghent Altarpiece, the belfry, the Gravensteen castle, and the splendid architecture along the old Graslei harbour. Return to Brussels where history meets modern day with monuments and buildings stretching all across the city to celebrate different eras. In the city centre there are the tributes to royalty, the Royal Palace which is no longer resident to the King but still stands and houses museums and churches. In the east side are the modern structures of the European Union. Each building and monument has its own unique story and historical significance, Grand Place, the Manneken Pis

Meals: B

Day 05 : Brussels – Antwerpen – Kinderdijk – Amsterdam

Morning departure to Antwerpen – the city of diamonds, that impresses with Vlaeykensgang section, with its warren of narrow alleys and passageways, that connect homes, small shops, cafes, etc, easy to get lost there. Antwerpen-Centraal train station is one of the city's premier landmarks with neo-Gothic facade, vast main hall and splendidly proportioned dome all well hide the 21st-century operation inside. Riverside fortress and a truly impressive Gothic Cathedral of Our Lady, Grote Markt, Brabo fountain, City Hall are all sights that will catch your eye. The day will continue at a small village of Kinderdijk, that is unique for its 19 windmills dating from the 1500s. It will provide a pretty good idea of how the life used to be back then. The next stop is Keukenhof also known as the garden of Europe. The day will end upon arrival to Amsterdam.

Meals: B

Day 06 : Amsterdam

Delightful sightseeing tour brings a real insight into Amsterdam's history, art and people, throughout history at the heart of European culture and commerce. TOUR HIGHLIGHTS

- Mont St. Michel: a member of UNESCO list of World Heritage Sites, with its unique position of being an island only 600 meters from land made it readily accessible on low tide to the many pilgrims to its abbey. Offering a great selection of famous paintings and sculptures.
- Paris: The Grand Louvre, the museum is housed in the Louvre Palace, originally built as a fortress in the late 12th century, nowadays the museum displays more than 380,000 objects and displays 35,000 works of art in eight curatorial departments with more than 60,600 square meters dedicated to the permanent collection. The Louvre exhibits sculptures, objects of art, paintings, drawings, and archaeological findings.

- Brugges: with its intact medieval architecture. the historic centre of Bruges has been a UNESCO World Heritage Site since 2000. Not to be missed sights of Hof Bladelin, Groeninge Museum, Church of Our Lady, and Belfry and Market Halls.
- Ghent: Ghent established a nice blend between comfort of living and history – it is not a city-museum. The city of Ghent also houses three béguinages and numerous churches including the Saint-Jacob's church, the Saint-Nicolas' church and the Saint Michael's church. In the 19th century Ghent's most famous architect, Louis Roelandt, built the university hall Aula, the opera house and the main courthouse. Highlights of modern architecture are the university buildings (the Boekentoren or Book Tower) by Henry Van de Velde. There are also a few theatres from diverse periods.
- Brussels: City that has so much more to offer than just chocolates and beer. Not to be missed are Grand Place, the Manneken Pis, Palais de Justice and Opera house, the Royal Palace, and the east side of the city where the modern structures of the European Union are.
- Antwerpen: Belgium's second city and biggest port, in the mid-16th century it had been one of Europe's most important cities and home to baroque superstar artist Pieter Paul Rubens, as you'll be so constantly reminded. The city retains an intriguing medieval heart with café-filled cobbled lanes, a riverside fortress and a truly impressive cathedral. Today Antwerp's top drawcards are its vibrant fashion, entertainment scene and startling architectural and cultural contrasts.
- Lisse: Keukenhof park with its splendid exposition of flowers
- Amsterdam: Amsterdam is one of the most romantic and beautiful cities in Europe, from its canals to world-famous museums and historical sites, The lovely atmosphere of Dom square, the mystique of Oude Kerk, the life of Albert Cuyt market, the unbelievable Anne Frank Museum, are just a few sights that will keep you busy in this magnificent city.

Today's travel will take you back to Croatia and its lovely coast of the Adriatic Sea. The final destination of the day is the city of Split which grew in the surroundings of the ancient city of Salona. Meals: B, D

Day 06: Split

Our goal on this morning sightseeing tour of Split is to explore the massive palace built by the 4th century Roman emperor Diocletian as his retirement home which is also on the list of UNESCO World Heritage Sites. We see Jupiter's Temple, the Peristyle and the Cathedral as well as Split's many Renaissance and Gothic structures. Over time the city has encroached into the corners and crannies of the palace; shopkeepers and tiny restaurants now make their home within its massive walls. The afternoon is free for independent activities or to take an optional tour to Trogir, originally founded as a Greek colony in the 3rd century BC. Here we can walk along the marble-covered streets to see the portal of the St. Lawrence Cathedral. Meals: B

Day 07: From Split to Dubrovnik

After breakfast, we head South along the Dalmatian coast to stop at Makarska for coffee and refreshment. Then it is on to Neum, the city in the territory of Bosnia and Herzegovina, where we stop for optional lunch. Afterwards proceed via Bačinska jezera, where we stop to take pictures of the spectacular Adriatic coast and proceed to the final destination of the day, Dubrovnik. Meals: B, D

Day 08: Dubrovnik

Morning sightseeing tour will focus on the beautifully preserved medieval town with its imposing city walls. Among the highlights are the Rector's Palace, Franciscan Monastery, which houses one of the oldest pharmacies in Europe. The afternoon is free at your leisure to explore the narrow cobbled streets of this old city on your own. Meals: B

Day 09: Dubrovnik

A whole day on your own in this pearl of the Adriatic, which is also on the UNESCO World Heritage List. Explore the city, walk the city walls, just enjoy the day off at your beach hotel or partake in one of the optional excursions such as a boat excursion to Elaphiti Islands or coach excursion to Montenegro. This evening enjoy the company of your fellow travelers and Tour Director at a farewell dinner in one of the restaurants within the walls of the Old City. Meals: B, D

Day 01: Budapest

Arrive at Budapest airport and transfer to your hotel. Check into your hotel and, in the evening, enjoy a welcome dinner combined with entertainment in one of the many local restaurants in Budapest. Meals: D

Day 02: Budapest

Budapest is a graceful capital along the banks of the majestic Danube – with soaring architecture, culinary delights, and a vibrant cultural scene. Comprehensive touring showcases the city's charms. Walk along the Fishermen's Bastion for stupendous views of the Parliament Building, and visit St. Stephen's Cathedral, the largest church in Budapest. Then see Heroes Square, the Danube Embankment and the impressive Chain Bridge. The afternoon is free to explore the surprising sights and unexpected delights of Budapest on your own. Meals: B

Day 03: Budapest

A whole day on your own in this exciting city. You can explore on your own or go shopping and check out the stylish boutiques of Vaci Utca, the Antique District and the stores of the West End. Take a shopping break with coffee and cake at the elegant New York Café or take an optional guided tour to the artist village of St. Andrea which attracts people with its many art shops and galleries as well as small coffee houses on the bank of the Danube River. Maybe it is time to explore Danube bend by boat to see Visegrad, once the capital of Hungarian kingdom or take the tour of Hungarian Puszta. The choices and attractions are numerous. Meals: B

Day 04: From Budapest to Vienna

Journey through the region of Transdanubia, dotted with orchards and vineyards, to the town Győr founded by the Romans. It has retained much of its medieval and baroque charm. Then it's a short drive to Imperial Vienna for our fabulous three-night stay. Then, why not enjoy a drive to see the city illuminated tonight? Meals: B, D

Day 05: Vienna

We enjoy a sightseeing tour with a local guide who takes us for a drive along the Imperial Boulevards to the mighty Hofburg with time to stop for pictures. We also see the Parliament, the world-famous Opera House, Stadtpark, Monument to the Soviet Soldier and the impressive baroque church of St Charles Borromeo. A stroll along the Kärntnerstrasse with its glamorous boutiques brings us to St Stephen's Cathedral, which we will visit (when open). Later we visit Empress Maria Theresa's favorite palace at Schönbrunn, former summer residence of the Imperial family and considered one of the most beautiful baroque palaces in Europe. Meals: B

Day 06: Vienna

A whole day to relax in this imperial city or to take an optional scenic drive into the nearby Vienna Woods where we stop to see Mayerling, and the hunting lodge where Crown Prince Rudolph and his young mistress died in 1898. We also stop at Heiligenkreuz to visit the Abbey of the Holy Cross. Then there's time at leisure, perhaps to window-shop in Kärntnerstrasse or visit a museum. Meals: B

Day 07: From Vienna to Prague

The journey will continue across the Czech border to Southern Moravia and the Natural Park of numerous lakes and hills. Then the way continues via Brno, one time Napoleonic headquarters to the astonishing Czech capital, Prague. Meals: B, D

Day 08: Prague

Spanning the River Vltava, Prague is one of the most beautifully preserved cities in Europe. The sightseeing tour will show the Hradcany Castle, striking Charles Bridge and Wenceslas Square, Old Town Square, the famous Astronomical Clock, the Jewish Quarter and St. Nicholas Church. In the afternoon, there are possibilities to enjoy an optional river cruise. Meals: B

8 days from Tirana to Vlore, Saranda, Korce, Ohrid and Skopje

ITINERARY

Day 01: Tirana

Arrive at Tirana airport and transfer to your hotel. In the evening meet your fellow travelers for dinner scheduled in one of the local restaurants. Meals: B, D

Day 02: Tirana

Morning departure to Kruje which rises 560 meters above sea level on the slopes of Sari - Saltiku Mountain. The city is surrounded by walls reinforced by nine towers which served as observation and signaling posts during times of war. Visit the Museum of Skenderbeg, housed within the medieval castle where you will learn the history of Albania's national hero who led the 15th century struggle against the Ottoman Empire; the Ethnographic Museum will be visited during our tour as well. There will be time to explore the old bazaar before returning to Tirana. Meals: B

Day 03: From Tirana to Apollonia and Vlore

Morning sightseeing tour of Tirana, the capital of Albania which enjoys a beautiful setting between the ranges of Dajti Mountains from one side and the coastal plains on the other one. We will see Skenderbeg square, Palace of culture and visit the National Museum. Late morning departure to Apollonia, situated 12 km from the city of Fier. Apollonian was founded by the Greek colonists who came from Corinth. In Roman times Apollonian was a flourishing city near the Aos river. We will visit its monuments and museum and proceed to Vlore for an overnight. Meals: B, D

Day 04: From Vlore via Butrinti to Saranda

Morning drive to Butrinti to visit this archeological site which is on the UNESCO World Heritage List since it bears witness to the continuous inhabitation since prehistoric times. Butrinti has been a Roman city, a bishopric, and enjoyed the prosperity under Byzantine administration. It was briefly under the Venetian rule and then abandoned in the late Middle Ages after marshes formed in the area. The present archaeological site is a repository of ruins representing each period in the city's development. We will visit Temple of Aesculapian, the Baptistry, and the Nymphaeum. Meals: B, D

Day 05: From Saranda via Gjirokastra to Korce

Breakfast and departure to Gjirokastra, the "Stone City", situated on the eastern slope of Mountain Mali i Gjere and which is on the list of UNESCO World Heritage Sites due to its architectural peculiarities. The city dates probably from the 4th century and passed to the Turks in the 15th century. What strikes visitors the most are the typical and characteristic houses which resemble little fortresses, clustered one above the other. During the sightseeing of Gjirokastra we will visit the Weapon Museum and the fortress. Later we proceed to Korce for an overnight. Meals: B, D

Day 06: From Korce to Ohrid

This morning we depart for Ohrid, but our first stop will be to visit St. Naum, the renovated monastery complex dating back to the 10th century. The monastery and the church were built by the end of the 9th century by St. Naum as a station and healing center for pilgrims. In the afternoon, we will reach Ohrid where several monuments will be seen during our sightseeing tour: the monument of St. Cyril and Methodius, the Lower gate, Samoil's fortress, Ohrid market and the church of St. Sofia with its icon museum. Meals: B, D

Day 07: From Ohrid to Skopje

This afternoon, we will reach Skopje, the capital of Former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, now an independent state. City sightseeing of Skopje features the Old Railway Station – the first train station in the Balkans, the Monument of Mother Teresa, the church St. Spas, built at the end of the XVII century and the Stone Bridge – a monumental structure in the center of the city. This evening join your fellow travelers and the Tour Director for a farewell dinner. Meals: B, D

Amsterdam

CITY BREAK AMSTERDAM

A European capital renowned for its indulgent atmosphere, Amsterdam is more than just a playground of sensual pleasures. Home of Rembrandt, Van Gogh, classic architecture, and, of course, the canals, this "Venice of the North" augments its famed 17th century glory with a thriving, cosmopolitan presence in the 21st century. The city's transportation system is as impressive as its business statistics, and Amsterdam is a dream to navigate. Compact and safe (unless you're a pedestrian on the bike paths), the city is accessible to locals and visitors alike, who traverse the city via a superb tram system or by cycling down the many bike lanes. Amsterdam, although wet at times, boasts a pleasant climate overall and encourages cyclists and pedestrians. Plus, canals keep automobile traffic to a minimum. Reminders of Amsterdam's rich cultural heritage can be found everywhere. The historic city center contains over 6000 historic, protected buildings, many of them narrow, ornate mansions along the canals. As expected, the city offers a wealth of excellent museums. The city, a must for any serious traveler, is a mix of old and new, traditional and modern, athletic and apathetic, serious and bizarre - much like the citizens and visitors who inhabit and frequent it.

RENAISSANCE AMSTERDAM HOTEL *****

The Renaissance Amsterdam Hotel is set between Central Station and Dam Square, perfect for any guest who wants to explore Amsterdam. Shopping and nightlife are an easy distance from the hotel.
